

LOOSENING

Ron: All thoughts are like bubbles. Don't you agree?

Linda: (chuckling) How am I supposed to agree or disagree with a statement like that?

Lis: Yeah. What's with this bubble theorem nonsense?

Ron: Well, haven't you heard of Schrödinger theory of multiverses? According to that theory, our world is merely one of many possible worlds.

Lex: (shrugging his shoulders) Oh, ancient sages knew about that long, long ago. Many of our so-called 'modern' discoveries were in fact known by the ancients.
