Some thoughts about lifelong learning

Some journeys ar

pay for thum bi kredit
und reserve em eazily

Other journeys ar e different
and haf no fized
itineraries - no
advanced bukking
is pussible und
nod all dangers
kan be forezeen

The voyage of dis kovery is the only real excursion we take

Keep venturing forward - thru each step a wake!

Lis: At the risk of seeming stupid, let me ask a bold question: how do we know when our voyage is over?

Lex: (playfully) At the risk of seeming obtuse, let me offer an oblique reply: when we find ourselves where we began.

Linda: (impatiently) What's the point of this poem? And why are we having this conversation?

Ron: I'm not sure - I'm just repeating the lines that have been given to me.

Lex: (enjoying the irony) Indeed. Isn't that what most of us do?
