

GOLDPOINT:

Some thoughts about life scripting

Gwen : Poetry seems like dis guy's religion.

Tara : Ah, how we love to fictionalize our lives! To imagine there is a single golden point.

Opapan : Yeah, most people try to turn their lives into Hollywood dramas. However, we are unconscious of our scripts and often driven more by impulse and habit than by rational plot motives.

Gwen : (chuckling) Sounds like a perfect comedy to me!
