

DESERT EYES: An Arid Vision

Yahui : The desert has many eyes.

Carla : (nodding) Indeed, and only a few are human.

Carlos : Through which eyes should we see?

Reed : (sighing) Do we actually have a choice? Don't humans have only two eyes?

Yahui : More options and eyes exist than most of us realize.

Reed : . . . (laughing) This conversation is ridiculous! You sound like Dr. Strange!
