

How Weird: Out of the Box of Expectations

INEXPLICABLE:

Transcending the Prison Bars of Logic

I Can't Tell You Why Love Is Essential
But can tell why beer is consumed.

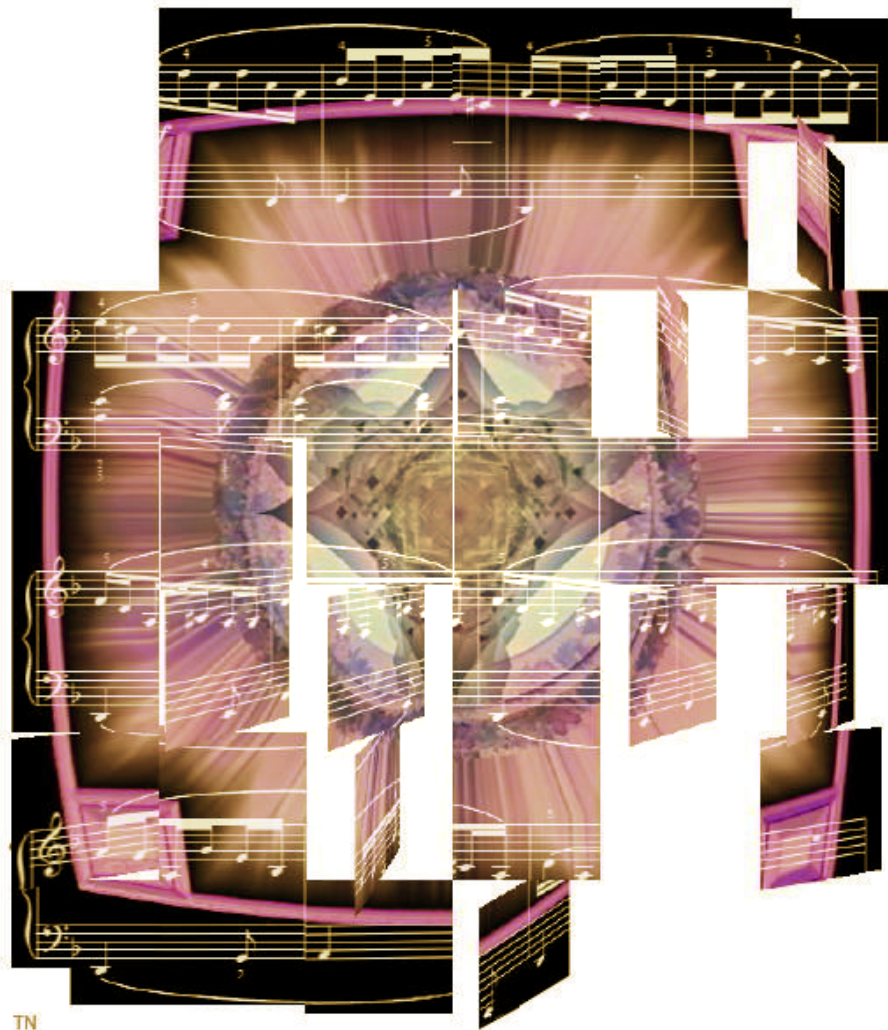

I Can't Say Why So Many Are Starving
But can say that eco-disasters loom.

I Can't Suggest Why Grecian Urns Are Precious
But do know beauty transcends all tombs.

And when all words are distilled
I suggest this - life's a celebration of sheer terror
& breathing is an important act.

Ultimately we should get off our butts
& heed distilled spirits:

Jack Daniel 'n Jim Beam understood that.

Nadia: Huh? Jack Daniel understood what?

Wan-Sze: How to make a good whiskey, of course!

Will: I think his real secret was how to make a handsome profit!

Kasim: (shaking his head) Wouldn't the world be better off without alcohol? Aren't we too intoxicated by materialism?
