

TERMINAL VELOCITY:

A Near-Death Reflection

Speed increasing to .97 maximal velocity.

Time and space expanding.

Frame of reference approaching zero singularity.

Heartbeat slowing.

Brainwave activity out of range.

Metabolic rate marginal.

Neuro-electrical activity reaching a flat state.

Condition appears terminal.

Decoupling energy manifolds.

Matter containment systems failing life support on hold.

Ron: (chuckling) This dude is terminal!

Lex: Aren't we all?

Ron: Hey! Lighten up!

Linda: (nodding) Yeah. Who wants to be reminded of their demise?
