

Lit-A-Rupture: A Post Literary Construction

THE GREAT RECYCLING

IS THE HIGHEST POINT OF ART A PRELUDE TO DECAY? DO CIVIL IZATIONS REACH THEIR ZENITH ON LY TO ROT AWAY? ARE MUSES' VO
ICES SWEETEST SHORTLY BEFORE THEY FADE?

FEAR NOT - ART IS A FRUIT
AS WELL AS A SEED.

GREAT WORKS TRANSC
END THE DUSTHEAPS OF HI
STORY - THEY AL
SO FERTILIZE GENE RATIONS AHEAD . . .

ALL THINGS ARE PART OF A GREAT RECYCLING.

IGNORE THE NOTION OF
SELF AND SEE HOW LIT
ERA
TURE KEEPS BECKON
ING
&
TRANS
FIGURING.

TN

Jack: Is this a swan song?

Juanita: (peering around mischievously) Huh?
Do you see any birds in the room?

Jack: (laughing) No really, just some ruffled feathers!

- T Newfields

Begun: 1999 in Taoyuan, Taiwan / Finished: 2016 in Xin-Táiběi, Taiwan

