

SHADES OF LOVE: A Devotional Affirmation

We are born to love
& cherish the handiwork
woven into the core of each heart.

Fear not if you are misunderstood
or some ridicule your art.

If others doubt your motives
be fearless without hesitation:
remember that which should be done
& that which can wait.

World bridgers transcend the past & creatively re-envision
possible futures that could pass.

They learn to discern subtle maps,
avoiding elusive repetitive traps.

Those with humor, courage, & insight align their energies with their highest light.

They explore how our inner convictions
might manifest
and discover a strange joy that nothing in this world can ever destroy.
